

FREEMAN
DAVID

SOLICITOR AND CONSULTANT

Thomas Eggar LLP

Education:

Bachelor of Law (LLB Hons), University College Cardiff and College of Law. Qualified as a solicitor 1981.

Professional Experience:

Partner in London law firm, Tuck and Mann and Geffen in 1986. In 1989 set up own firm, Elias Freeman, with colleague, Chris Elias which, following mergers became part of the practice of Thomas Eggar LLP in 2001. Now a consultant solicitor to Thomas Eggar LLP representing clients from the Middle East in connection with their business and family affairs. This has led to a broad range of work including advising on international tax, offshore trusts and companies, real estate and general business advice and UK registered charity administration, with assistance from colleagues at Thomas Eggar LLP.

Pro bono charity work:

Company Secretary and honorary legal advisor and board member of a number of UK registered charities that focus on education, health and child protection issues in the Middle East.