

ISMAILY
SALEM

DEPUTY CHAIRMAN AND EXECUTIVE PRESIDENT

Omani Centre for Investment Promotion and Export Development

Education:

Salem Ben Nasser Al Ismaily holds degrees in Telecommunications, Liberal Arts, Industrial Engineering, Business Administration, Management and Philosophy from universities in the United Kingdom and the United States.

Professional Experience:

Al Ismaily worked as the Managing Director of the Public Establishment for Industrial Estates (PEIE) from 1984 to 1996. In 1996, he was appointed as the Deputy Chairman and Executive President of the Omani Centre for Investment Promotion and Export Development. He also serves as a board member of many private companies in the field of financial services and energy, in a private capacity.

Publications:

Al Ismaily has maintained interest on the influence of national and corporate culture on management styles, particularly in the context of the Gulf business community and is an author of two books on the subject.